GET YOUR G.E.D.!

Adults interested in obtaining the G.E.D. in the Lockhart I.S.D. General Education Development Testing and Preparation Program must attend a 4-hour orientation session at the Lockhart Adult Learning Center. This orientation will provide prospective students with all the information they may need concerning G.E.D. testing and G.E.D. preparation classes.

The orientation will include information about GED Testing and Classes, registration of new students, and testing of adult basic skills in reading, language, and math. After the Orientation is completed, students can take the GED Practice Tests and/or begin GED Preparation as needed.
